[Special telegram to the Dispatch.]

RALEIGH, N. C., October 26.—The colored people have done a very sensible thing. This afternoon they decided to continue their State fair all next week. Governor Scales expected to go to Hickory yesterday to deliver an address at the fair there. The weather was so bad that he could not go. Last night he telegraphed that the westher permitting he would leave here to-morrow and be there Friday.

Near Laurinburg, day before yesterday, Miss Flora Jones was in a buggy with her father. The horse ran away, Miss Jones was thrown out, caught in the wheel, and killed.

The Governor's Guard hoped all day that the rain would cease and that there would be indications of better weather, but as neither happened they reluc-tantly abandoned their plan of leaving for Richmond this afternoon.

The citizens of Newberne held a massmeeting to-night to discuss a plan of subscribing to build a railway from that place to Wilmington.

PETERSBURG NOTES. Fifteen Years for Assault-Demoeratic Convention-Pevival Meetings, &c., &c.

[Correspondence of the Richmond Dispatch.]
PETERSBURG, VA., Oct. 26, 1887.
The trial of Walter Jones (colored), charged with assault upon the person of a colored girl named Rosa Davis, which was commenced in the Hustings Court yesterday, was concluded to-day, with a verdict of guilty and a sentence of fifteen years in the penitentiary. The case was an aggravated one.

The Democrats of this city met in their respective wards last night and elected delegates to the convention which is to meet at the court-house on Friday night to nominate two candi-dates for the House of Delegates. The convention will be composed of sixty delegates and as many alternates, and from the character of the men elected it will be a very fine body.

it will be a very fine body.

Rev. George J. Hobday, formerly paster of the Eaptist church at Hicksford, has been holding a series of revival meetings in that village for several days past, which have been quite largely attended. There have been a number of professions of faith.

A great crowd of our people will go over to Richmond to-morrow, should the weather not be too inclement, Among the number will be many of the old Confederate veterans, who desire to pay their respect to the memory of their great commander.

The Hustings Court has adjourned over until Friday in order to enable the judge, members of the bar, and all others having business in the court to attend the State Fair and the Lee-monument exercises. Robin Adam.

County Court adjourned at an early hour to give the large crowd present an oppor-tunity of hearing General Eppa Hun-ton, of Fauquier, and H. St. George Tucker, of Augusta, discuss the issues of the pending canvass. The court-house was soon packed to its utmost capacity. General Hunton led off in a speech of more than an hour's length but was closely listened to throughout. He made a severe arraignment of the Republican party and General Mahone. He was particularly severe in comment-ing upon some of the little General's pet schemes which only failed to become laws through the patriotic action of the "Big Four." This was the General's first appearance among our people, but he created a fine impression. A good many veterans of his old command—

He could never lend himself to the weaving of a plot against anation which had so greatly contributed to Italy's re-demption. War with France would be as deplorable in case of victory as it would be in defeat. While working for our own good, we work also for the benefit and peace of all nations.
